

The Italian Dancer

A graceful young woman, caught mid-turn, exudes quiet confidence in this timeless portrait. With her dark hair tied in a red ribbon and wearing a white, open-backed blouse, she exudes beauty and modernity.

Painted in the tradition of Classical Realism, 'The Italian Dancer' combines refined technique with emotional subtlety. Soft light and earth tones draw attention to the elegant line of her back and stillness of her pose.

This work speaks to collectors who appreciate the enduring elegance of traditional portraiture reimagined for today.

*Unique piece
Oil on canvas
Real wood frame
60x45 cm*

2025-10 | AS 73