

Whispers of Silver and Crimson

This artwork is a quiet homage to timeless beauty and the poetry of the everyday. At its center, an antique silver teapot anchors the composition. Around it, ripe pomegranates, glowing with earthy reds, rest in elegant disarray, their forms rich with symbolic vitality.

This still life invites contemplation on the balance between decay and endurance, opulence and restraint - a meditation on the grace of objects touched by time.

*Unique piece
Oil on canvas
Real wood frame
45x60 cm*

2025-11 | AS 52