

The Muse of Florence

This portrait captures a moment of serene introspection, where beauty and tranquility merge in a tender balance. The young Florentine woman rests on a sofa, her dark hair softly gathered, her white off-the-shoulder blouse delicately illuminated by warm, diffused light. The gentle rhythm of her pose and the harmony of muted tones evoke a timeless quietude - a whisper of classical grace.

Painted in the tradition of Academic Classicism and Classical Realism, this work celebrates the intimacy of stillness and the poetry of repose, inviting the viewer to share in a fleeting dream suspended between light and silence.
